

5. An arsonist is someone who destroys public property with paint. _____
6. A suspect is a person whom the police think might be guilty of a crime. _____
7. You wear a belt around your neck. _____
8. A ponytail is a type of hairstyle. _____
9. "Lost property office" is a place where you report crimes. _____
10. A well-built person is usually strong and broad-shouldered. _____

5. Uzupełnij luki w minidialogach jednym brakującym słowem.

1. A: What does the stolen bag look _____?
B: It's small and brown.
2. A: What is this jacket _____ of?
B: It's made of genuine leather.
3. A: Did the police _____ the thief?
B: Yes, they caught him two hours later.
4. A: Can you fill _____ this form, please?
B: Sure, no problem.
5. A: Oh dear! I lost my wallet!
B: There's something _____ going on!
6. A: Someone tried to _____ into our school last night.
B: That's terrible! Was anything stolen?
7. A: Is the man wearing a checked or a _____ shirt?
B: It has no patterns, so it's plain.
8. A: We will _____ you as soon as we find your keys.
B: Thank you very much!
9. A: Did he commit a _____?
B: Yes, he damaged three cars.
10. A: I think that man is carrying a _____ with stolen money.
B: Let's tell the security guard.

